

Membership

The Louisiana Society of Certified Public Managers is a professional association of public sector managers. Membership eligibility is based on an individual earning any of the following designations through a management program accredited by the National Certified Public Manager Consortium such as the Louisiana Comprehensive Public Training Program.

- Certified Public Managers (CPM)
- Certificate in Supervisory Techniques (CST)
- any of the four component certificates of the Certified Public Manager program offered by the Louisiana Comprehensive Public Training Program
- other programs accredited by the national Certified Public Manager Consortium

The designations are awarded for successful completion of course work, tests and written projects. They indicate that recipients have studied management principals and applied them to work situations.

Goals Of the Louisiana Society

- provide opportunities for professional development
- promote development and improvement of Comprehensive Public Training Program
